

POLI-CUT PH CONTROL SYSTEM Portable – Self Contained – Carbon Dioxide Based

The Poli-Cut™ pH control system is designed for the concrete industry. Concrete polishing, grinding or cutting operations as well as pre-cast concrete and small ready mix companies can use this system to neutralize high pH process water to meet federal and local regulations concerning discharge of high pH process water or storm water. Automatic circulation and treatment with carbon dioxide.

The Poli-Cut System comes complete with integral 200 gallon heavy duty polyethylene tank. Programmable logic controller, proprietary carbon dioxide diffusion injection unit, 2- speed pump – 1500 GPH or 3000 GPH. 5" polyurethane or pneumatic rubber casters, 2" bottom drain valve with 50' pf 2" flat hose Alarm light, All NEMA 4X enclosures and fittings.